SALISBURY VAHCS

Salisbury VAHCS includes the level 1b W.G. (Bill) Hefner VA Medical Center in Salisbury, NC, as well as outpatient centers in Kernersville, NC, and Charlotte, NC. The system provides inpatient and outpatient services to over 92,000 Veterans in the central Piedmont service area.

Salisbury VAHCS has clinical pharmacist practitioners (CPPs) with scopes of practice in primary care, long-term care, home-based primary care, mental health, infectious disease, hematology/oncology, and acute care. CPPs are a pivotal part of interdisciplinary teams across the system.

There are five PGY1 residents and one PGY2 psychiatry pharmacy resident. The facility also trains learners from multiple other disciplines.

Residency programs at Salisbury VAHCS offer various leadership and growth opportunities; prioritize diversity, equity and inclusion principles; and emphasize resident well-being.
