

Things to Do in the Hudson Valley

The Hudson Valley extends 150 miles above the tip of Manhattan north to Albany. Designated as a National Heritage Area, the valley is steeped in history, natural beauty, culture and a burgeoning food and farmer's market scene. Recently ranked number two in its top ten travel destinations, Lonely Planet describes the Hudson River Valley as "a real city break, with leafy drives, wineries and plenty of farm-to-table foodie options." National Geographic Traveler also named the Hudson Valley one of the top 20 must-see destinations in the world in 2013. The Hudson Valley is the fastest growing part of New York State and offers one of America's most vibrant business environments.

There is so much to do in the Hudson Valley. Views, Art, Culture, Outdoors, Recreation, Entertainment, History, Dining, Shopping and more!

Whatever brings you to upstate New York, you'll find countless things to do in Dutchess! We're 800 square miles of natural scenic beauty, historic and cultural landmarks, and outdoor recreation. Not only can you step back in time, you can choose which time: Colonial and Quaker days, the Gilded Age, or the 20th century. Explore five historic Great Estates, including Franklin D. Roosevelt's Home, and the FDR Presidential Library and Museum, with two floors of updated, interactive exhibits. Our museums tell unique stories, including the history of WWI and barnstorming era airplanes. Tour Dia: Beacon, and stay for Beacon's Second Saturday, a city-wide celebration of the arts. Vassar's Loeb Art Center invites you to stroll its galleries free of charge. Shop for treasures in village antique shops or specialty shops. Plenty of family fun awaits at SplashDown Beach and the Mid-Hudson Children's Museum. Get closer to nature at Sprout Creek Farm and the Trevor Zoo. The gift of nature is never far away. Our scenic beauty is perfect for nature lovers; formal gardens and nature sanctuaries are ready to explore. They represent the range of our relationship with nature, from the order of an ornamental garden to the naturalness of a forest preserve. Observe native birds and wildlife while hiking, including 30 miles of the Appalachian Trail. Explore woods, fields and ponds at six multiple use areas. Ramble or cycle three Rail Trails, including the Walkway Over the Hudson State Historic Park, the world's longest pedestrian bridge! Learn skeet shooting or fly fishing at Orvis Sandanona. Commune with nature on the links at 16 championship courses. Drive our scenic byways. Find out what makes us Distinctly Dutchess.
